The extensive collection programs of Acquisitions Branch were described during the classified portion of the meeting. During the unclassified portion, the reporting officer described the Chicom collections at M.I.T. Libraries, N.L.M., Agriculture, LC, Midwest Inter-Library Center, Hoover Library, etc. In addition, Dr. Nunn's study Chinese Periodicals, International Holdings 1949-1960, was discussed at length.

25X1A5a1

The reporting officer recommended that the representatives of [REDACTED] 1) purchase microfilm copies of Chicom S & T journals available at M.I.T. and other libraries to establish a basic collection; 2) consider adding classified titles once the basic collection has been established; and 3) request all classified materials and information thereof through AFCIN channels.

A list of Chicom journals offered to the New York Public Library by the National Library of Peking, on exchange, was made available to the reporting officer by AF representatives. Items not available in the Branch will be acquired through OO/C channels. The meeting was attended by the following:
